HEADLINES

- Union Omaha will be looking to begin their title defense on the right foot against an old foe in Greenville, who began their season last weekend with a 1-1 draw against expansion club Westchester SC.

- The Owls have never lost their season opener, with a record of 2-0-3 in their history to begin the season.

- Greenville may take a while to adjust to the loss of last season's Player of the Year Lyam MacKinnon, now in the USL Championship. With the signings of former Chattanooga Red Wolves Ropapa Mensah and Chevone Marsh, however, the Triumph are definitely not lacking in firepower.

- Omaha are in a similar situation, having lost Player of the Year runner-up Pedro Dolabella and their all-time leading scorer Steevan Dos Santos. The duo combined for 24 goals last season. The Owls' hopes are pinned on a number of figures, like new signings Mehdi Ouamri (signed from Chattanooga FC after a 12-goal season in MLS NEXT Pro) and Birmingham Legion legend Prosper Kassi, their all-time appearance leader.

- Union Omaha now have three players native to the area on their roster, with Blake Malone joined by Brent Kallman in defense and 25-day signing Cole Jensen at goalkeeper.
