HEADLINES

- While no former Owls have flocked to the northeast, Hearts of Pine's head honcho has a connection to the hosts: you may have heard that Bobby Murphy was an assistant coach for Union Omaha back when they won their first title in 2021.

- Despite both clubs' struggles in the league to begin the season, both Omaha and Portland are members of the four-team group of USL1 teams who ousted a USLC club in the Open Cup (San Antonio & Hartford, respectively).

- Goalkeeper Rashid Nuhu, a fixture between the sticks for Union Omaha since the club's inaugural season in 2020, will surpass 10,000 minutes played in USL1 regular season play with a start in this match.

- Azaad Liadi will be the man to look out for from Portland. Liadi has the club's sole assist thus far, but has taken 10 shots and accrued an xG total of 2.56 without a goal as of yet, the second largest xG underperformance in the league.

- Portland Hearts of Pine are just coming off a hard-fought draw against One Knoxville in their league home opener, and will now be looking to spoil the home opener of the last team to kick off their USL1 home campaign in Omaha. The Owls have played a home match in the Open Cup in 2025, but it was at UNO's Caniglia Field rather than their regular stomping grounds of Werner Park.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
