HEADLINES

- As is often the case with the U.S. Open Cup, this will be the first ever meeting between these two sides. Omaha coach Dom Casciato did have plenty of experience against SAFC in his time as an assistant with El Paso, however.

- Union Omaha has had a roller coaster of a season start. A dominant 3-1 showing against Tormenta FC in league play has been bookended by two different kinds of wrenching losses: a 3-0 thrashing by Greenville, and a late 1-0 loss to Richmond last week.

- San Antonio FC, meanwhile, will be looking for a rebound of their own. After a perfect 4-0-0 start to their 2025, They've had back-to-back 2-1 losses, including this weekend to previously winless Miami FC. Former Owl Daltyn Knutson scored Miami's opener.

- There's no question on who has been San Antonio's star in attack to start the season: Jorge Hernández. Not only does he lead the team in goals (3, on only 5 shots), but his 17 chances created through 6 matches leads the entirety of USL Championship.

- While his numbers aren't nearly as lofty, thanks in part to signing just after the season had begun, Sergio Ors Navarero has impressed in the early going for Union Omaha. In his debut against Tormenta, the Spaniard notched a goal and an assist, while against Richmond he came closest to giving the Owls the lead on multiple occasions.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Brandon Knapp (suspension)
