HEADLINES

- It'll be a reunion for a couple former Owls in this match, as center back Luca Mastrantonio and attacker Adam Aoumaich previously suited up for Union Omaha before moving out west to the newcomers from Lancaster.

- This is expected to be a real battle for possession as well, with Brian Kleiban's AV Alta squad leading the league in possession and Dominic Casciato always looking to stay on the front foot and hold the ball as well.

- Omaha's attack has started to return, even if the finishing isn't all the way there. This is augmented by the news that Pato Botello Faz, in his return from an achilles injury suffered in August 2023 with Las Vegas Lights, has parlayed his 25-day contract into a full deal with the Owls. He scored his first goal for the club at home in the 4-3 slugfest loss to Richmond.

- One place where the Owls will be needing some improvement is Joe Gallardo's spot in the lineup. Gallardo finished second in USL League One last year with 43 chances created, behind only new teammate Isidro Martinez. So far in 2025, he's not even in the top three on his own team, sitting behind Charlie Ostrem, Max Schneider, and the now-injured Aarón Gómez.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
