HEADLINES

- Both clubs are in dire straits as the only USL League One clubs in their group for the USL Jagermeister Cup. Omaha is already eliminated, with an 0-2-0 record in the group stage, while Texoma hangs on by a thread with a single point.

- Union Omaha were arguably the ones to really kickstart Texoma's season, with the 2-1 victory in Texas by the newcomers not only coming right at the beginning of their recent 8-game unbeaten streak in the league, but also being the club's very first win in existence.

- Texoma has benefited from a level of clinical finishing that Union Omaha has often lacked so far this season. Philip Spengler and Solomon Asanta have 5 and 4 goals, respectively, while their expected goals (xG) tallies are 2.41 and 1.68, respectively.

- However, the Owls have received a serious spark in their attack from loanee Ryan Becher, who has goals in his last three appearances for the club. Between his goalscoring touch and lanky frame in the center of the pitch... whisper it quietly, but the St. Louis CITY 2 midfielder's surge brings to mind last year's star Pedro Dolabella, now with North Carolina FC.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
