HEADLINES

- With so much up in the air in the final round of the USL Jagermeister Cup group stage, it's somewhat of a disappointment that this is the only match in Group 2 without any stakes to it, with both teams eliminated.

- Despite only facing each other a year ago in the U.S. Open Cup, both clubs have seen turnover in the technical area since then; Wilmer Cabrera replaced Brian Clarhaut at the helm of El Paso about a month after that Open Cup defeat, while Vincenzo Candela has just this month become the interim head coach for Omaha.

- When they last met, there were several former El Paso personnel on the Omaha side, with coach Dominic Casciato as well as players Mechack Jérôme & Aarón Gómez. With the former two departed and the latter out with a long-term injury, though, there's no roster crossover between the sides.

- The big story for Union Omaha has to be the impact of midfielder loanee Ryan Becher. After wading into the waters with his first couple appearances for the club in late June, Becher has 4 goals in 4 matches in July. This already ties him for the club's leading scorer, at a rate of a goal every 98.75 minutes.

- Tired legs may come into play here, however; this is Omaha's third match in eight days, albeit all at home. El Paso have steadily puttered along with a sole match a week in July.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
