HEADLINES

- This is a much-needed opportunity for both clubs, each seen as frontrunners in preseason, to begin a run to the playoffs. Westchester in particular are in need of a win, as they haven't netted three points since mid-June (excluding the win they were recently awarded over Spokane Velocity due to a player ineligibility issue by Spokane).

- Union Omaha have been continually bringing in attacking talent through the season, and the biggest hit so far has been Ryan Becher. The midfielder was nominated for USL1 July Player of the Month after scoring in four straight matches to start July, with a total of 6 chances created and 76% passing accuracy as well.

- No points for guessing who the focus is on for Westchester. Golden Boot leader Juan Carlos Obregón Jr. has 9 goals on the season, on a league-high 47 shots, and leads Westchester with 1,348 minutes played; nobody else on the team has more than 1,100.

- Union Omaha are continually looking for a spark in attack, hoping that goals will beget more goals. This match could be an opportunity for that, then; Westchester not only have the most goals conceded this season at 33, but have yet to earn a clean sheet in USL play (either the league or cup).

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
