HEADLINES

- After following up 2024's high-fly-ing campaign with a few months of struggle in attack, the Owls of Omaha are firing on all cylinders now. They're coming off a 5-0 demolition of Texoma FC, with five different goalscorers, and have found the back of the net 11 times in their last three matches.

- While the tides have been turning for Union Omaha, Westchester's woes came back to the fore again, as a blown lead against Spokane Velocity brought their record after taking a lead to a ghastly 2-7-7. Only Chattanooga has taken the lead in more matches than Westchester, but by comparison, their record in those instances is 12-3-2.

- The above could be trouble against an Owls team that's scored 10 of their 33 goals from the 76th minute onward, highest in the league. Two of those, of course, came in the last meeting between these sides.

- Mark Bronnik has been oft-noted as a Rising Star in the league of late, and for good reason: the 18 year-old has four goals in his last five matches, and a league-leading 0.77 goals per 90 minutes.

- As the saying goes, "You miss 100% of the shots you don't take." That isn't a problem for Bronnik and Westchester's Juan Obregón Jr, who rank 1st and 2nd in the league in shots taken per 90 minutes at 4.5 and 4.0, respectively.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
