HEADLINES

- Union Omaha, after sitting bottom of the table in early August, has now clinched a playoff spot for the sixth time in their six-year history. More than that, their rain-soaked victory over FC Naples puts them just three points behind a potential home playoff match in the first round.

- Greenville, meanwhile, sit 11th and haven't been above the playoff line since the end of August, putting them in danger of missing out on playoffs for the first time in club history. However, they're only 3 points behind Charlotte Independence for the #8 seed.

- Omaha has the opportunity to make their mark on the history books here: a win would not only tie them with Greenville for the most matches won in USL1 history at 79, but it would bump them ahead of a tie at 35 away wins, also the most in league history.

- This matchup sees maybe the two top playmakers in the league square off: Greenville midfielder Connor Evans leads USL1 with 62 chances created, while Omaha left back Charlie Ostrem sits just behind at 52 chances created, while leading the Golden Playmaker rankings with 9 assists.

- Rest assured that both players should be able to show off their chance creation in this match as well; Omaha and Greenville are #1 and #2 in the league in shots taken, by a significant margin over the field.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
