HEADLINES

- Union Omaha looks to join Spokane in the ranks of teams hosting a playoff match next weekend; they can do so with a win, or through scenarios where Naples and Portland drop points.

- Last month's 2-2 draw between these two clubs was the first time in seven matchups that the home team didn't emerge victorious in this fixture.

- Reigning Player of the Month Sergio Ors Navarro reached double-digit goals in his first pro season with a brace against Forward Madison last weekend. After spending much of the year as one of the most snakebitten strikers (according to expected goals), he's now on 9.73 xG versus 10 goals tallied.

- The same can't be said for teammate Stefano Pinho, whose 6.5 xG has only yielded 3 goals. That -3.5 difference between xG and goals is 4th in USL1. Right behind him? Spokane's Anuar Peláez, despite a lofty 13.32 xG.

- While Luis Gil (46 chances created) will get attention for his playmaking, the right-side duo of Lucky Opara and Shavon John-Brown should not be underestimated. Both are top ten in the league in xA (expected assists), and have combined for 61 chances created.

- Of course, left back Charlie Ostrem and his 7.63 xA will be a menace on that very side of the pitch too. He's just the 5th player in USL1 history to reach 10 assists in a season.

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
