HEADLINES

- Union Omaha come into this match on an eight-match unbeaten run in the league, as well as an eight-match unbeaten streak at home stretching back to the calendar turn to August.

- What makes Omaha's form even more impressive is that this match closes a run in which they have faced each of the top five teams in the table.

- FC Naples has clinched a playoff spot already, but a win here would go a long way to securing a home match in the first round of the playoffs. Union Omaha have fought back from the bottom to have a possibility of clinching with a win alongside dropped points by AV Alta and Greenville.

- This looks to be another match in which the Owls will be handed the ball and tasked with breaking down stout opposition; Omaha's 57.3% possession ranks second in USL1, while Naples' 44% is second-lowest. They'll need to be clinical for sure; Naples ties for the 4th most goals in the league despite the second-fewest shots and touches in the opposition box. (Omaha, naturally, is tops in both.)

- Keyed in large part by Charlie Ostrem and his league-high 9 assists, Omaha puts in 6.6 accurate crosses per match, pacing the league by far. That may be a stiff challenge against Naples' towering center back pairing of Brecc Evans (6'4) and Jake Dengler (6'5).

ABSENCES

- Lagos Kunga (leg)
- Blake Malone (foot)
- Aarón Gómez (leg)
