HEADLINES

- This match presents a rarity for both sides: an inter-division rematch. Union Omaha knocked Indy Eleven out of the U.S. Open Cup late last month, and now both teams will look to start their Prinx Tires USL Cup campaigns on the right foot.

- In a sense, though, this isn't new ground for Union Omaha; just last season they faced San Antonio FC in both cup competitions. After defeating SAFC in the Open Cup, however, they fell in USL Cup play.

- Brandon Knapp is more known for his impact outside of the stat sheet, but it's been an early breakout for him in that regard. UO's minutes leader and occasional captain has three goal contributions already in the league, matching a career high set in 2024.

- Union Omaha will want to keep one eye on Aodhan Quinn at all times; the Indy Eleven playmaker leads the Eastern Conference with 15 chances created so far this season. No other Indy player has more than 7.

- There's quite a contrast in how each team approaches their squad management. Indy Eleven has 8 players who have started all 6 league matches, with 3 playing every minute of them. Brandon Knapp is the only Owl to go 6 for 6, and nobody on the squad has played the full 540 minutes.
