HEADLINES

- Last season, Union Omaha signed two fan favorites to permanent deals after 25-day contracts: Pato Botello Faz and Cole Jensen. After his game-winning brace against Boise last weekend, hometown hero Diego Gutiérrez will be hoping he's next in line.

- As with each expansion team, Corpus Christi will still bring some familiar faces to Omaha. That begins on the bench, with former Northern Colorado Hailstorm manager Eamon Zayed at the helm for the Sharks.

- While his impact hasn't shown up on the stat sheet yet, keep an eye out for the Owls' young playmaker Edrey Cáceres. The Houston Dynamo academy product has already taken on set-piece duties, and his 6.94 passes completed over expected ranks second in the league among midfielders.

- Corpus Christi has imported several key players, from goalkeeper James Talbot to Trinidadian international winger Kaihim Thomas. However, Omaha fans will still zero in on League One fixture Christian Chaney, USL1's second-leading goalscorer ever. The vet should thrive in Zayed's system.

- Union Omaha have a packed slate to begin the season; this will be another three-match week for them with a trip to Indianapolis after this to face Indy Eleven in the U.S. Open Cup on Tuesday. From there, they'll proceed west to face AV Alta on the weekend.
