HEADLINES

- Union Omaha may have seen another cup run come to an end, but their form in USL League One is still on point. They've won four straight, against four previously undefeated opponents.

- That said, there's a streak that the Owls will be looking to break as they head into this matchup: they have never won in Richmond. In six matches at City Stadium, Union Omaha is 0-2-4.

- Richmond Kickers may be propping up the USL1 table, but their season hasn't been a total bust so far; they too upset USL Championship opposition in the U.S. Open Cup second round, defeating Loudoun United 1-0. Both clubs proceeded to bow out against a MLS team in the Round of 32.

- Still, they've struggled to find offense in the early going; no player on their team has multiple goals in the league so far, and they sit last in USL1 both in goals scored (2) and expected goals (3.13).

- Union Omaha, meanwhile, can generate offense from a variety of spots on the pitch. Their two leading chance creators are right back Younes Boudadi and striker Pato Botello Faz, with 8 each.
