HEADLINES

- Both teams march into this first-ever matchup with each other carrying 3 points in the group. Omaha took down Indy Eleven by a 2-1 scoreline for a second time this season, while Louisville City dispatched Fort Wayne 3-1.

- A victory here could put Omaha into pole position in the group; after this match, they face the other two USL League One teams in the group, while Lexington and Louisville have two more Championship fixtures ahead of them (including each other).

- The Owls have made their hometown a fortress no matter the stadium; spread across two seasons and two venues, they have a 16-match unbeaten streak at home in the regular season. They'll need every ounce of that advantage for such high-powered opposition.

- Jansen Wilson is an obvious X-factor for the visitors; he's one of only two players in the Championship with 2+ xG and xA, underscoring his ability to impact the game in a myriad of ways.

- Union Omaha has been a little beaten up of late, with a player-sized gap on their bench the last couple matches. However, Sergio Ors Navarro returned from an injury layoff to score a mid-week game-winner at One Knoxville, and Blake Malone just made his first start since March 2025. The club also announced on Friday the loan signing of Allen Gavilanes to bolster their midfield.
