HEADLINES

- This is the first ever clash between these two clubs, with Fort Wayne in their inaugural season. This will be the third time that Union Omaha has faced a USL League One team in a cup competition before their first-ever league fixture (Northern Colorado Hailstorm in 2021, Spokane Velocity in 2024).

- While this is the cup competition, it's worth noting that these teams carry into this match the two longest unbeaten runs in USL1; Union Omaha hasn't lost in the league since April 18th, while Fort Wayne's last league defeat ranges back to March 28th at New York Cosmos. It makes for a combined 13 USL1 matches without a loss.

- The schedules for each club at the halfway point of the group stage are mirror images of each other: both teams have played Louisville City FC (though Omaha hosted while Fort Wayne traveled) and Indy Eleven (with Fort Wayne hosting and Omaha traveling). However, Omaha's final group stage match is against Forward Madison, while Fort Wayne takes on a third Championship team when they host Detroit City FC in July.

- With a goal and an assist last weekend, Diego Gutiérrez moves to 7 goal contributions in league play in 2026, which is tied for 4th in USL1. His 5 goals also puts him a goal back of a tie for the Golden Boot lead.

ABSENCES

- Boudadi (suspension)
