HEADLINES

- This match isn't just 1st vs 3rd in the table, but a square-off between the league's two top scorers. Charlotte's 25 goals pace the pack, while Union Omaha sits in second with 22. No other club in USL League One has more than 17.

- As with the Fort Wayne matchup over the weekend, this also features two scorching hot teams. Both clubs lost by 2-1 scorelines on April 18th, and since then have been undefeated in the league. Charlotte is even unbeaten in the USL Cup too, thanks to a win on PKs against Pittsburgh Riverhounds in May.

- It will be a very different challenge for the Owls coming up; after a May with 7 matches, 5 of which were at home, they now hit the road for a Wednesday/Saturday trip east, with Sarasota waiting after this match.

- Core to Charlotte's attack is Luis Álvarez. While he's now owned by Tampa Bay Rowdies, the Floridian club have loaned him back for a 4th season with Charlotte, and he's making the most of it. He's tied for the Golden Boot with 6 goals, and for the overall league lead in goal contributions with 9.

- Meanwhile, another Championship loanee in Allen Gavilanes has been making waves in Omaha. The tricky winger racked up a goal and two assists against Fort Wayne FC, with many of those chances created from a combination of flair and workrate.
