HEADLINES

- It's a new month, which will be welcome news for only one of these teams. While AV Alta strides into this match off the back of an undefeated record in June, Union Omaha hit the skids with three straight losses in June.

- One big issue for both teams: there's only one ball. Union Omaha and AV Alta each have over 58% average possession this season, putting them a close 1-2 in the league. However, Omaha's 361 touches in the opposing penalty area dwarfs AV Alta's total of 262.

- Meanwhile, a familiar face is leading the charge for AV Alta's attack. Former Owl Adam Aoumaich has found his footing out in California, and leads the team with 5 goals. He's also briefly shared the pitch with his brother Ilias.

- Their biggest all-around threat, though, may be Jerry Desdunes. The Haitian native is one of two players in the league with over 3.5 expected goals and expected assists, while his 33 chances created also pace the league.

- In a match between two high-volume passing teams, it may yet fall on a different method of progression for the Owls to break through a defense that has a league-high 6 clean sheets. Diego Gutiérrez, luckily, has the second-highest Goals Added via dribbling in the league with 1.23, while teammate Kempes Tekiela also sits in the top ten with 0.67 Goals Added via dribbles.
