HEADLINES

- This is the 20th all-time meeting in all competitions between these two clubs, and the second in the USL Cup. Their first USL Cup fixture, in 2024, was a 3-3 barnburner in which Madison emerged victorious on penalty kicks.

- Union Omaha can potentially advance to the knockout stage with a win and help. The Owls could win their group with a regulation win paired with a regulation loss by Louisville City. A win in regulation plus help from elsewhere could earn them the single wild card spot to advance as well, should they score enough goals. Forward Madison, with 3 losses, is looking to play spoiler to their rivals.

- After a winless June, Union Omaha stumbled out of the gates against AV Alta to open July, but three goals in 13 minutes late on spurred on a big win to stay atop the USL League One table.

- While Madison languishes in the cellar of their group in this competition, they've notched four straight unbeaten in the league to climb into a playoff spot. This run was kickstarted by a 5-1 destruction of Athletic Club Boise last month.

- Both clubs have produced goals from a variety of sources; in the league alone, each club already has six players with multiple goals on the year.
