HEADLINES

- Union Omaha are looking to keep up an unbeaten home record in the league, while also wanting to curb a run where they've suffered four losses in five matches across all competitions. They'll hope Westchester, 0-7-0 on the road this season, can be that salve.

- For a second straight year, Omaha will have to handle a Golden Boot contender playing for Westchester; Conor McGlynn sits tied for 2nd in the league with 8 goals on the year. This is even more remarkable given his role as a central midfielder, rather than leading the line.

- On the flip side, Westchester striker Daniel Burko has only a single goal despite tallying 4.5 expected goals, which makes for the second largest deficit in the league.

- Both clubs have fallen behind in nine matches thus far this season, making for over half of their matches. While Westchester has yet to gain a result from that position, Union Omaha has a league-best three comeback victories.

- In a similar vein, you can always be on the lookout for late fireworks from this Owls squad, because they've netted an astounding 11 of their 25 goals from the 76th minute onward. That includes four goals scored beyond the 90th minute.
