HEADLINES

- Union Omaha will be looking to tie the USL League One regular season record for longest undefeated streak at home; with a result here, they'll hit 21 games without defeat, dating back to last season at Werner Park.

- While Richmond are only 1-1-8 on the road this season (and haven't achieved a road result since May), they are coming off two straight wins along with a week and a half of rest to get amped up for this one.

- There's a stark contrast in the attacking fortunes of both squads, with Union Omaha nearly doubling up Richmond's goals scored total. On an individual level, the Owls have six players with more expected goals than Richmond's highest-ranking expected scorer (Josh Kirkland, with 3.32 xG).

- The issue also boils down to one of field tilt: Union Omaha's 528 touches in the opposition box leads the league, while Richmond's 312 slots them in the cellar.

- Sergio Ors Navarro leads the league in Goals Added via receptions, with 2.43 g+ through his ability to get into dangerous positions. Only the Golden Boot leader, Souaibou Marou of Charlotte Independence, has more than 1.8 g+ via receptions.
